

Mums to raise research funds

THIRTY staff and parents from two St George childcare centres will forgo a Mother's Day sleep in this Sunday to strap on their walking shoes for two good causes.

They will be taking part in the Mother's Day Classic, a series of walks and runs which raise money for breast cancer research.

While the team's registration costs will go to the National Breast Cancer Foundation, team members have also sought sponsorship to raise funds for the Humpty Dumpty Foundation.

Anastasia Papadopoulos, owner and operator of Giggles Early Learning Centre, Bexley, and

The Little Cottage, Carlton, organised the team that will set off from The Domain on Sunday morning.

The Humpty Dumpty Foundation raises money to provide much-needed medical equipment for children's hospitals across

By Merryn Porter

Australia. Ms Papadopoulos hopes to raise $50,000 through a series of events. The money will be used to purchase equipment for the children's ward at St George Hospital.

Ms Papadopoulos has planned a dinner to be held next month.

Then, in July, Ms Papadopoulos will set off on an even bigger challenge, climbing Africa's Mount Kilimanjaro with 20 other Humpty Dumpty Foundation supporters.

Details: Dinner, from 6.30pm, Saturday, June 5; The Haldon Function Centre, 276 Haldon Street, Lakemba.

Tickets are $80. Bookings: Simone, 0404 108 811. or Jenni. 0423 694 489.

Best foot forward: Members of the team who will walk in the Mother's Day classic this Sunday.

Picture: Jane Dyson